SEPTEMBER 7–OCTOBER 7, 2012

San Francisco Premiere!
By Edward Albee

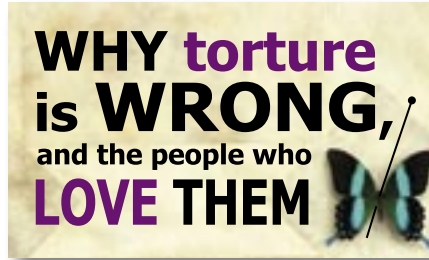

If you have no wounds, how do you know you are alive? Baby is the darkest of comedies from the author of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?

NOVEMBER 2–DECEMBER 2, 2012

Bay Area Premiere!
By Tracy Letts

A heartwarming comedy from the author of August: Osage County, set in one of Chicago's most quickly changing, and racially divided, neighborhoods.

JANUARY 11–FEBRUARY 10, 2013

Bay Area Premiere!
By Christopher Durang

Terrorists, and shadow governments, and butterfly collections, oh my! Durang's latest absurdist comedy will have you laughing all the way to the waterboarding room!

MARCH 15–APRIL 14, 2013

San Francisco Premiere!
By Sarah Ruhl

A poetic look at love and loss, MacArthur "Genius" winner Sarah Ruhl retells the Orpheus myth through its heroine's eyes.

MAY 17–JUNE 16, 2013

A Magical Revival!
By Craig Lucas

An adult fairy-tale written in the aftermath of the AIDS crisis, Prelude challenges our assumptions of beauty, the limits of love, and the meaning of commitment.
